

APPLICATION

Please send a short application with the following information to foundation@ramboll.com no later than 20 September 2021

- Name, education (degree, year, university), address, country, email, phone number
- Current work of the Applicant
Research career until date
Research achievements and connection to green transition in the energy sector.
- Description of how the Flemming Bligaard Award will bring the Applicant's research further:
Short description of research activities the Flemming Bligaard Award would catalyse, and how the results would be of benefit for strengthening the green transition in the energy sector.

(One page – approximately 500 words or 3,000 characters)
- Applicants affiliation to research institutions
Name of university and faculty/department
Recommendation from research supervisor

Award criteria

- An early-career researcher with university affiliation
- Post-Master's Degree level with min. 3 years of documented research
- Research topic within sustainable solutions
- 2021 Award focuses on green transition in the energy sector.

Application and selection process

- Application deadline is 20 September 2021 at 12:00 CET
- Applicants will receive confirmation of receipt
- Applications will be assessed by a Selection board with members from universities, relevant organisations, and experts from the Ramboll Group.

Other information

- The award is expected to be handed over at an event in Ramboll's Head Office in Copenhagen, Denmark. Travel and accommodation for the award winner will be reimbursed.
- As award winner, you must be willing to present your work at a webinar (facilitated by Ramboll Foundation) and participate in PR activities related to the award announcement.
- Synergies with activities of the Ramboll Group can be explored but is not guaranteed.

Contact

For any questions, please contact Neel Strøbæk

Apply

Please send your application to foundation@ramboll.com no later than 20 September 2021.